THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION   50X1-HUM

1. An emergency plan was laid down by the Mecklenburg Landespolizei headquarters in October 1948. It contains the following stipulations with regard to transportation:

   . Commandeering of motor vehicles. In order to have an ample number of 50X1-HUM motor vehicles at its disposal in cases of emergency, the Mecklenburg VP headquarters, through the Auto-Transport-Gemeinschaft (Truck Association) (ATG), called on all motor vehicle owners to sign a pledge to report with their vehicles at a specified police station if required. Ninety-five motor vehicles in Land Mecklenburg were thus earmarked, i.e. eight or nine vehicles in major counties, such as Rostock and Schwerin, and six vehicles in minor counties, such as Wismar, Stralsund and Greifswald.

   Fuel Depots. Stocks totaling 78,000 liters of gasoline and 1,600 liters of motor oil were stored in several places to be used only in cases of emergency. The motor oil and 10,000 liters of gasoline were stored at 75 Bismarckstrasse, Schwerin and the remaining gasoline at points in Bad Doberan, Wismar, Rostock, Parchim and Ludwigslust. The emergency measures were once put into effect during the spring flood along the Baltic Sea coast in 1949.

2. The Mecklenburg Landespolizei had the following motor vehicles in operation in mid-April 1950, and the following personalities were identified:
